reporte abril 2025.

las nuevas visiones sobre el lugar de trabajo.

Nuestro Workmonitor 2025 revela un cambio fundamental en las expectativas del talento, basado en las opiniones de más de 26.000 personas en 35 mercados. Los trabajadores están redefiniendo sus prioridades laborales, estableciendo una nueva base sustentada en los 3 pilares claves que representan las nuevas visiones sobre el lugar de trabajo: motivación a partir de la cercanía, fomentar un sentido de comunidad y obtener oportunidades a partir de habilidades.

Andrea Ávila, CEO de Randstad para Argentina, Chile y Uruguay, afirmó: "Los datos del Workmonitor 2025 muestran que está surgiendo una nueva línea de base en el lugar de trabajo, a partir de las expectativas multifacéticas del talento, la priorización de la realización personal y otros drivers, como la creciente incidencia de la búsqueda de una mayor calidad de vida en las decisiones de carrera, que están dando forma a una fuerza laboral que define el éxito profesional no solo por lo que hace, sino por qué lo hace, cómo lo hace y con quién lo hace. Frente a un contexto de creciente escasez del talento y una fuerza laboral empoderada, esta dinámica empuja la redefinición de las condiciones del 'contrato social' entre los trabajadores y sus empleadores en todo el mundo y pone a las organizaciones frente a la necesidad de adaptar su propuesta de valor para atraer, fidelizar y comprometer al talento"

"Si bien podía esperarse que las difíciles condiciones económicas de 2024 hubiesen moderado las expectativas de talento, los datos del Workmonitor muestran lo contrario y nos dicen que el empoderamiento de la fuerza laboral no ha sido un efecto pasajero y que los trabajadores tienen mucha claridad sobre lo que esperan de sus trabajos y del impacto que quieren que tenga en sus vidas. Están más conscientes de sus necesidades, tienen más claras sus prioridades, saben bien lo que quieren y se animan a ir por ello", agregó Andrea Ávila.
